C. L. I. of Suffield Defeats W. H. S. Eleven, 14-0.

One of the largest crowds that has recently gathered on Windham field to witness a football game watched Wednesday afternoon when the right of the game. As it turned out, the game between the Connecticut Literary Institute of Suffield and the Windham High school eleven was rather easy picking for the former team, which won by the score of 14-0.

Windham kicked off and Belit returned the ball a few yards. Right off the reel Kennedy and Belit executed a forward pass for a score of yards before the latter was downed. The next play was another forward pass that netted a short gain. Suffield was penalized 15 yards for holding. She was forced to punt and Burns received same on his 10 yard line and advanced a couple of yards. Jordan reeled on 10 yards.

Blacklee was sent through the line for a first down. Hoxie made three more. An attempted forward pass was recovered and then a fine one was worked by Burns to Jordan for 15 yards. Suffield was here penalized 10 yards for holding. Jordan went through tackle for six yards and Blacklee added a couple of more through guard. Burns attempted to punt from a close formation and Orcutt received the ball that only went a short distance. He was downed almost in his tracks by Burns. Cauty was sent through the line for a gain of six yards, but was downed by Hoxie on a good tackle. Suffield failed to gain and it was Windham's ball. She fumbled but Burns saved it to no avail, as Windham could not gain her distance.

Cauty netted eight yards through tackle and guard. Porteous added six more. An attempted forward pass was intercepted by Jordan. Windham was held for yards because of poor generalship. Cauty circled right end for 20 yards. Windham braced and Suffield failed to gain and it was Windham's ball. She fumbled but Burns saved it to no avail, as Windham could not gain her distance.

Jordan returned the ball 15 yards before he was downed. Kelrins punted and Jordan brought Porteous down as soon as he had his fingers on the ball. Suffield was unable to advance the ball. MacFarland gained well. C. L. I. was again penalized 15 yards for offensive. The ball was well up in C. L. I.'s territory when time was called.

The second half opened with Campbell going in at left ends for Orcutt. The time was cut short three minutes and Jordan returned the ball a dozen yards only to be brought down by Cauty. C. L. I. was offside again and was penalized. Burns galloped a yard and a half. A forward pass. Burns to Hoxie, netted 30 yards. Burns failed at an attempt to advance the ball. Jordan reeled off nine yards and it was third down and five to go. Burns tried to shine again and could not get the necessary five.

C. L. I. endeavored to execute a forward pass, but Jordan interfered and got the ball. MacFarland was sent around the end for 12 yards. A couple of more dumb plays and it was C. L. I.'s ball.

Johnson gained 25 yards before he was finally downed by MacFarland. Johnson added eight yards more and on the second play thereafter carried the ball over for a touchdown. Street kicked an easy goal. Score, C. L. I. 9, Windham 6.

Street kicked off and Burns received the ball. Jordan gained again. A forward pass. Burns to Hoxie, netted 20 yards. Jordan added a few yards, to be followed by Hoxie for a gain. An attempted forward pass failed. Street of C. L. I. intercepting the same. C. L. I. advanced the ball in the line shape for a number of yards, as it was getting dark, Johnson in some way eluded the men and carried the ball around Windham's left end for 15 yards to a touch down.
